

The McDuffie County SWCD recently partnered with McDuffie County Extension to hold a Agricultural Field Day at McDuffie County High School. Students were introduced to a wide variety of agricultural based career paths from both government and private organizations.

